

ABOUT WRE

The 11th International Conference on Water Resource and Environment (WRE 2025) will take place in Shanghai, China, from November 28th to December 1st, 2025.

Over the past ten editions, WRE has successfully convened in prominent locations such as Hong Kong, Matsue, Japan, Macau, Taiwan, Qingdao, Beijing, and online during challenging times. In diverse forms of keynote speech, oral and poster presentations, panel discussions, each iteration has provided a dynamic platform for researchers, practitioners, policymakers, and industry leaders to exchange cutting-edge research findings and share innovative methodologies aimed at addressing global water challenges.

On behalf of the organizing committee, we cordially invite you to participate in WRE 2025 and experience the multicultural diversity in Shanghai, China!
